33 SEEK COUNTY OFFICES

7 FOR SCHOOL POST, 5 IN RACE FOR SHERIFF, 5 UNOPPOSED

Tax Collector, Recorder And Surveyor's Positions Have Three Contestants; 12 Would Be Township Judges, 5 Seek Supervisorships, 6 For Constable

The time for filing nomination papers in the November elections, subject to the August primaries, expired at noon today and there are thirty-three candidates seeking eleven county offices. In five of these offices there is no contest.

Judge George H. Thompson, District Attorney Henry S. Lyon, County Clerk and Auditor Arthur J. Koletzke, County Treasurer Della Patterson, and Coroner A. J. Orelli, all candidates for re-election, have no opposition.

Well, they're off! Judge George H. Thompson, District Attorney Henry S. Lyon, County Treasurer Della Patterson, County Clerk Arthur J. Koletzke, Coroner A. J. Orelli, Justice of the Peace T. F. Lewis and Constable T. J. Martin are up-opposed.

The race is on for other offices, and County School Superintendent E. J. Fitzgerald has heard the starter's gun but is not running.

While the race is warming up, perhaps you'd care to get down on Main Street sometime after eight o'clock in the morning and watch twelve miles of Army trucks roll down the highway. They're coming from Salt Lake City and it'll take about an hour for them to pass a given point. Twelve miles of the Army on wheels.

Recently wed at Minden, Nev., are Quincy Veerkamp, 23, and Gwendolyn Block, 16, both of Placerville. Our best wishes to them.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ward are spending the weekend at Yosemite National Park.

Farm Advisor and Mrs. Ivan Lilley are at Silver Lake for the weekend at the San Joaquin 4-H Club camp. We didn't learn whether Ivan took his fishing rod with him.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Green were here from Modesto Saturday morning, visiting Mr. Green's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Green, and left during the forenoon for a month's vacation in the east.

John Holliday was among those in town Saturday morning from Camino.

Tentative Plans For Review Of U. S. Naval Might By President Are Considered

WASHINGTON (UP)—A review of the entire U. S. Fleet off San Francisco is under contemplation by the President, it was learned today.

Sources close to the White House said that plans for the review probably would materialize although it was emphasized that they still are in a tentative stage.

While Mr. Roosevelt's schedule for arrival in California on his western trip starting July 7 has not yet been officially announced, it was believed that the review would take place July 15.

SAVING THE LIBERTY BELL—Tradition has it that the Liberty Bell was saved from the British by John Mickle, during the revolution, who secreted it under a load of hay and took it to Sellersville, Pa. Above, in connection with the 220th anniversary of the State Assembly's vote to hide the bell, two men in Philadelphia, in Colonial garb, re-enact the scene.

The service was performed by the Rev. Dr. Redenbach, pastor of the First Congregational Church, of Oakland, and the bride was given in marriage by her brother, Kenneth Upde Graff, and had as her attendants Mrs. Kenneth Upde Graff and Mrs. Charles Ott.

She wore a gown of white lace and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and white sweet peas.

River Boat Race On Sacramento

Delta Queen Will Represent Capital City In Joust With Stockton Sunday

SACRAMENTO, (UP)—All the glamor of early steamboat races on the Mississippi River will be re-enacted here tomorrow when the cities of Sacramento and Stockton race their river boats down the Sacramento River.

Old timers dusted the cobwebs from costumes of forgotten years to wear on the boats. Nothing will be overlooked to capture the color and excitement of the famous races on the Mississippi and early day California races on the Sacramento.

Competing for Sacramento will be the Delta Queen, while the Port of Stockton will represent Stockton. The match race was arranged by mayors of the two cities and flip of a coin selected the Sacramento River.

The river boats will race downstream for 16 miles from the Sacramento tower bridge to Clarksburg, with Gov. Frank F. Merriam the official judge. About 1,000 persons will crowd aboard each ship for the race, while newsreel grind and the ceremonies are broadcast.

The steamboat racing is being revived to draw attention to the fact that navigation will be possible for 100 miles north of Sacramento when Shasta dam is completed and to advertise the Sacramento Golden Empire centennial next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Larkin have sold their home in Bungalow Terrace to Dr. and Mrs. A. A. McKinnon and will leave early next week to make their home at Santa Cruz. Mr. Larkin, worthy president-elect of Placerville Aerie No. 889, F. O. E., will be installed Monday night and may be succeeded by Arthur Mart, the vice-president elect.

Father Of Placerville Woman Passes

Cyrenus Silverthorn, 76, passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Morris Jones, on Locust Street, Friday night, after a short illness. He had been making his home with the Jones for about three years.

A native of Michigan, Mr. Silverthorn came to California in 1899, and followed the trade of carpenter, until in recent years when he had retired from active work.

All of his children were at his bedside at the time their father passed on. They included two sons, G. A. Silverthorn of Alameda; Stanley Silverthorn of Colusa; two daughters, Mrs. Elwin Harrick of San Francisco and Mrs. Morris D. Jones.

Funeral services will be held at the McNary Funeral Home in Colusa at 2 p. m. Monday. The family left Saturday afternoon, with the body for Colusa.

The sermon theme for the Sunday morning service will be: THE SOVEREIGNTY OF GOD. "He is the beginning and the end." In the beginning God... is the great basic truth of all the godly people. "In Him we live and move and have our being." It is possible to believe this in an intellectual way, and still not experience it.

He is sovereign and judge over men and nations and all are responsible to obey Him. The sense of moral responsibility is deplorably weak today. But His word will abide forever and "whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap" still abides. We cannot pay our debts by ignoring them.

It is only through the sovereign God of the universe that we may receive reconciliation and forgiveness. When we have disobeyed and forsaken Him, we may be re-established in His love and care. "Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest." "He that cometh unto me I will in no wise cast out." He has thus spoken to us through His Son.

The ransom of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away. These words from Isaiah compile the Golden Text to be used Sunday, June 26, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon "Christian Science" include among the Scriptural selections: "And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter: that he may abide with you for ever; Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you" (John 14: 16, 17).

The following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, also include: "The time for the reappearance of the divine healing is throughout all time; and whosoever layeth his earthly all on the altar of divine Science, drinketh of Christ's cup now, and is endowed with the spirit and power of Christian healing. In the words of St. John: 'He shall give you another Comforter: that he may abide with you forever. This Comforter I understand to be Divine Science' (p. 53).

MISSOURI FLAT

The Missouri Flat Sewing Club enjoyed a picnic at Bass Lake Tuesday. Guest for the afternoon was J. M. Nicol and friend, Marian Moore. Mr. Nicol is the owner of Bass Lake and showed us every courtesy. Bass Lake is a favorite place for fishing, boating and picnicking.

Mrs. Mary Drennan was accompanied from Salinas by her daughter and baby.

There will be a card party Tuesday evening, June 28 at the Community Hall and the cedar chest will be given away. The chest is on display at Dillinger's store.

The weather was miserable for the 4-H Club-Farm Bureau overnight; camp at Lake Tahoe, but those who attended had a good time despite being wet and exceptionally cold.

LOTUS

The weather the past week has been very good. On Sunday a rain storm came up and lasted for about an hour, some hail followed. On June 20th, 1915, 23 years ago, a hail storm came and covered the ground with about two inches of hail, doing considerable damage to all gardens and fruit crop. We hope the same does not come again before the end of June.

The High School Bond election held at Coloma Friday afternoon was not well voted. Considering the population of the three school districts the vote was very small, only 54 votes being cast—44 favoring the bonds and 10 opposing it.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walker and daughter Fay and Frank Crawley of here are among those who are picking cherries for Art Kozetzke on his orchard at Cool. They inform us that Kozetzke has some 24 picking and about 15 women in the picking shed.

Wesley Fox, who for some time past has been employed at the Sciaroni Mine in the Grizzly Flat section, which is now closed, has accepted a position in the Black Oak mine at Garden Valley.

Cattle have been going up to the summer range in the mountains the past week. Sunday evening Rufus Swift and Charlie Dugan's large herd passed through our streets on their way to the Silver Creek range. Henry Bacchi took up a nice bunch the past week to Peavine, Luneman Bros. Archie Lawyer, and McCullough Bros. will soon follow.

E. J. McKenney and son, Edwin, came up from Sacramento Saturday and are to spend a week working on their mine here. Al is going to take a week's vacation from his duties as salesman for a wholesale house in the bay city and work here while his wife is spending the week with her mother, Mrs. Mat Irvine, in Oakland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ruger and two children, of Sacramento, spent a few hours Tuesday last with Mrs. Ruger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Herzog, Sr. They returned toward evening.

William Bathurst, candidate for sheriff, and his brother Angus, were in our town Wednesday last calling on the voters and Thursday, Miss Jane McCusker, candidate for county recorder, was a caller at our home. These are the first two candidates who have come in to see us to open the campaign and from now on they will be coming around like bees.

Cliff Archambault and friend Bob Lind, who have spent two weeks at Cliff's home in Coloma, returned to his Oakland home Sunday evening.

Mrs. John Huston, Miss Emma Pappi, of Coloma and Mrs. Abbie Oulick, of the Webber Creek district, were in town the past week.

We are wondering if the people of Coloma, Gold Hill and Lotus are going to give a candidates ball this campaign. Most every campaign these days are given to hit the pockets of a lot of candidates' ball this campaign a lot of them, so let's have a candidates ball.

Charlie Rasmussen put in Friday afternoon registering voters in and around Coloma for the coming election. He secured some 20 new voters, parties who recently came into our vicinity and those who did not vote in the last election. Voters should bear in mind that July 20th is the last day to get registered if they want to cast their vote at the August primary.

Rattlesnakes seem to be quite plentiful this year. The Johnson boys in the Webber Creek section killed five of them the past week, the largest having eight rattles and a button.

Jim David and wife of San Francisco spent Thursday afternoon in Lotus, coming here from Lake Tahoe. Jim recently married an Oakland lady and they were on their honeymoon. David was born in our town, being a son of the late Addie Beebe, and came this way to show his bride his old home and outplace, now owned by Wesley Grocher. David owns a large radio store in the bay city for the past eight years and was here some seven years ago. They left here for Jackson, Sutter Creek and return home.

Charlie Hines took the day off on Thursday and with Charlie Rice spent it fishing on Silver Creek. From what we learn, they met with success catching the speckled beauties.

Everett DeLory, one of our Coloma fruit men, was in our town the past week trying to get some information regarding the old Japanese Tea Garden ranch near Granite Hill which was near the ranch now owned by Louis Veerkamp. These Japs had a large tea garden some 70 years ago but for the lack of water for irrigation, they met with no success.

Adolph and William Fredell, whose parents were residents here in the 1860's came up from San Jose where they now reside and spent a few hours in our town and Coloma looking over their parents' old home which was down on Michigan Flat, some two miles from our town on the highway to Auburn. The two men are second cousins to Charlie Rasmussen; their mother being a sister to Charlie's mother, known as Emma Hart, and married to Jack or John Fridell, her second husband.

Mrs. Lucy Bundern, who recently sold her property near Coloma to Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Henry, of Los Angeles, will leave for her new home in Los Angeles Thursday. Ed Johnson, who has also been a resident of Coloma for some twelve years past, will also leave with the lady. Their many friends here wish them success in their new home.

KITTENS AND RAT PLAY

CAMBRIDGE, O., (AP) — Two small kittens in a tire shop here certainly are not "rat killers." The two kittens play daily with a rat, which seems to enjoy his strange playmates.

Eugene McCoy, Bakersfield, was elected president of the Future Farmers at the recent convention in San Luis Obispo.

Ed Sayers, the P. G. & E. meter reader from Placerville was in our town Monday checking on the customers.

Scott Ramsey, of the Democrat staff, and Mrs. Verna Brame, of the Antique Shop in Placerville, were Lotus callers Monday evening gathering up old relics of all kinds. Scott and the lady are always welcome at our home.

FIVE-MILE TERRACE

Various improvements have been noted along the Terrace the past week. The Joe Millers have added colorful awnings to their green bungalow and Mr. Paugh has put a new coat of white paint on his house. Louis Baumgardner's rock wall on the portion of his property which faces U. S. 50 is very substantial looking as well as attractive. Pat Barner is remodeling the garage on the property which he bought from Al Bailey and will build a sleeping room on the second floor. The Doughertys are also building a two-story garage.

Among the residents of Five Mile Terrace who were seen at the Eagles Picnic Sunday at Motor City were Al Huot, George Walker, the Dewey Millers, Mr. and Mrs. Al Stanley, Mrs. Lena Vanyle and Mrs. E. MacFarland and son, Bruce.

Ralph LeVitt and Sam Kessler were in Sacramento Thursday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bocassini and daughter, Adele, of Placerville, visited Mr. and Mrs. Bob Williams and children at their home on the Terrace recently.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wilson, of Pilot Hill, called Saturday at the Camino Heights Orchard to visit their son, John R. W. Wilson, and family. They returned to their home later in the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Pitkin and Mrs. Reynolds, of Stockton, called on Mrs. MacFarland Tuesday afternoon. They were on their way to Fresh Pond to visit the W. H. Watthens.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Leavitt and children drove to Fallon, Nev., Sunday to visit relatives.

Negro Turn was the scene of an auto accident Sunday when a truck traveling toward Placerville missed the turn and crashed into a car coming from the opposite direction. A second car, also coming from Placerville, hit the truck. The cars were badly damaged but it did not appear that any of the occupants were seriously injured.

Not having observed the signs of Spring moving, Jerry had gone hunting and could not be found when the family left. He returned to the empty house, did a bit of howling and waited and was on hand Sunday afternoon to accompany the family back to camp.

The thunder and hail storm Sunday morning appears to have done no damage to fruit here, although the hail was the biggest ever.

GRANGE NOTES

Marshall Grange
Marshall Grange No. 451 on June 10 had as their guests the Hangtown Grange degree team. They put on the first and second degrees for the twelve candidates who were found in waiting and were duly initiated. There were six who were unable to attend. Those initiated included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Richards, Jay Fogal, Mrs. A. Fogal, George Grebles, and J. C. Grebles. Those who will be initiated at the meeting June 24 are Mr. and Mrs. Jess Womack, Jerry Poose, George Gogal, William Welley and J. Kildard. The work put on by the degree team was very beautifully done and the drill after the initiation was enjoyed very much and the drill team earned commendation for their work. We hope they will come again.

With the team were Pomona Master Ben Brown and Mrs. Brown, Master William Wygersma and Mrs. Wygersma, of Hangtown; Alburn Veerkamp, past master of Marshall Grange, with his wife and son, Harry; W. R. Shuman, past master of Hangtown, and Mrs. Shuman and two children; and Drillmaster Dr. Bouyn and wife, who is the team's musician. These two should be very proud of their work.

The H. E. Club will meet in the Garden Valley Hall Thursday, June 23, at one o'clock for a potluck lunch. The ladies are on their third quilt. This one will be exhibited at the county fair. Those who were present last Thursday included Daisy Veerkamp, Della Weller, Peggie Davenport, and Daisy Rolfe. Grangers are always welcome. Daisy Rolfe, lecturer.

PARADE OF SPORTS

By HENRY McLEMORE
(United Press Staff Writer)

NEW YORK, (UP)—You've read and heard a great deal about the "killer instinct" in prizefighters.

Now you can see it if you are so inclined.

The slow motion picture of the 124 seconds of the Joe Louis-Max Schmeling fight is probably the most faithful recording ever made of human savagery. The picture is much more terrifying to watch than the fight was. In the Yankee Stadium the rapidly with which the butchering occurred, against the background of noise and excitement, prevented anyone from getting a cold and objective view of it. In the quiet darkness of the small theatre where I saw the fight pictures I was appalled by the knowledge that this ruthless, unmerciful killer there on the screen was one and the same man as the Joe Louis whom I had just left a few minutes before—a Joe Louis who talked of ice cream, and trips to Europe, and his new pin-striped suit.

I saw Joe again after I had seen the pictures and although he was sitting in the same chair and talking in the same low voice, I didn't feel fully comfortable around him. It was if I had seen a savage tiger behind the bars of a cage suddenly loosed to walk free among the people who had been watching him.

The Louis of the slow-motion pictures has no connection with ice cream and pin stripe suits and discussions of the weather. He is a jungle man, as completely primitive as any savage, out to destroy a thing he hates. Even the style of fighting he had been patiently taught, was abandoned. He fought instinctively and not by any man-made pattern.

There is one moment in the picture that made me want to turn my head away, and I have seen some pretty dreadful shambles in the ring. This is the moment when Louis sets up the, by then completely helpless Schmeling, for the final blow, and then delivers it. This was a right hand smash to the jaw of a falling man—a beaten man who needed only a push to topple him over and not a blow driven home with every ounce of strength in Louis' 200 pounds.

The picture shows very clearly that

Louis did hit Schmeling in the kidneys, not once but twice. But it also shows with equal clarity that neither punch was intentional. Schmeling is wrong if he thinks these kidney punches cost him the fight. When he leaves the hospital, let him go to see the film and he will have to admit that he was a badly beaten man, with no chance of victory, before either kidney punch was delivered. He was on the ropes, out of his head and helpless. And these kidney blows were mere taps compared to the rifle shots that all but tore his head off.

It is to be hoped that Max Baer does not see the pictures of the fight. If he does, and then signs to meet Joe, it might be wise also to sign an alternate heavyweight in case the Californian doesn't show up.
